Welcome to the Lakes Line

This ten mile jewel of a railway connects busy Oxenholme station on the West Coast Main Line with Windermere, the gateway to the Lake District, serving en route the town of Kendal and the villages of Burneside and Staveley. At Windermere you'll find onward bus connections to many parts of this World Heritage Site and National Park. From Windermere Station, it's only a short bus ride down to Bowness-on-Windermere, where you can take a cruise with unforgettable views of Lakeland's magnificent fells from England's largest lake.
